The El Paso Central Business Association has planned a public luncheon Wednesday featuring Lisa Colquitt-Muñoz, El Paso Independent School District board president, and Luis Villalobos, executive director of communications for the district.

Colquitt-Muñoz and Villalobos will talk about the accountability procedures for the district's $230 million bond election on May 12 and why it is needed. An estimated 9,500 new students are expected to enroll in the district in the next four years because of growth at Fort Bliss.

The luncheon, which will be open to the public, will begin at noon Wednesday at the Camino Real Hotel, 101 S. El Paso. Cost: $11. Information: 533-2656.
