

Dress Code Guidelines

School is a SPECIAL & SAFE PLACE and students are expected to dress appropriately in order to ensure a safe environment. Students must be in compliance at all times.

Uniforms are not required, however, there are no exceptions if a student is found in violation of the dress code. Parents will be called to bring a change of clothes. Students may receive a warning on the first offense after administrator consideration. Students who violate the dress code after a warning will receive a consequence in accordance with EPISD's Student Code of Conduct.

Please adhere to the following dress code and rules.

- Any form of dress or hairstyle considered contrary to good hygiene, destructive or disruptive in appearance, and or causing a detrimental effect on classroom instruction will not be permitted.
- Tattoos or face body painting of any kind or not allowed.
- Clothing and accessories with obscene content that depict alcohol drugs, skulls, music groups, gang affiliation, or any obscene or questionable material are not allowed.
- The appropriate length for apparel such as skirts dresses or shorts is arm length.
- Pants should be worn at the waist and clothing should not be revealing.
- No excessively torn or ripped jeans allowed shorts or leggings must be worn under a dress or skirt to avoid exposure of any skin above the knee.
- No hoodies caps or hats will be worn in the building.
- Spaghetti straps are not allowed unless worn under a cardigan.
- Midriff tops are not allowed (because a cardigan won't always cover a midriff).
- Closed-toe rubber-soled shoes are encouraged to ensure student safety no flip flops and exercise caution when wearing Croc-style shoes.
