

Conflicts of Interest	The implication from the appearance of a conflict of interest is just as important as the implication from an actual conflict. If an outside independent party might question the intent of a transaction or relationship, such transaction or relationship is deemed to impact the appearance of a conflict and therefore should be avoided. Circumstances related to an appearance of conflict include those that would cause a reasonable and informed third party, having knowledge of the relevant information, to reasonably conclude that a Board member or employee has compromised objectivity related to a vendor relationship.
Vendor Representative	For purposes of this policy, “vendor’s representative” shall mean an employee, partner, director, board member or officer of a potential vendor or consultant, lobbyist or actual or potential subcontractor of a vendor, or any other individual or for-profit or nonprofit organizations acting through or on behalf of any person seeking a contract award or on behalf of a group of interested individuals or members seeking a contract award.
Covered Activities	The District shall investigate theft of property, theft of service, theft of anything of value, fraud, and misappropriation claims in accordance with policy CAA(LOCAL).
Actions Constituting Inappropriate Activities	In addition to the examples listed in CAA(LOCAL), activities constituting inappropriate conduct include, but are not limited to, the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Receiving payment as a result of the submittal of fictitious billing for work not actually performed;2. Receiving payment as a result of intentional over-billing for work performed;3. Bid price fixing;4. Bid rigging;5. Collusion with District employees to commit a fraudulent or unethical act; and6. Bid tailoring, as defined by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners that is intended to limit competition or create an unfair advantage for a specific vendor.

The cone of silence shall apply to the acquisition of goods or services using the procurement methods identified in state law as well as renewal periods for contracts previously awarded by the Board with renewal options.

"Cone of silence" shall mean a prohibition on any communication regarding any request for information (RFI), request for qualifications (rfq), request for proposal (RFP), bid, or other competitive solicitation (as defined in the procurement methods above) between:

1. Any person who seeks an award from the District or its affiliated entities including a potential vendor or vendor's representative; and

Time Period

The cone of silence shall begin upon the development of the scope of work through the issuance of an RFI, RFP, bid, or other competitive solicitation as defined in state law and shall officially end upon execution of an award by the Board and/or the execution of a negotiated contract, whichever represents the final act in the procurement process.

Regardless of the above time period, it shall not be acceptable for a potential vendor to participate in discussions that determine the scope of work, strategic direction, technical specifications, or evaluation criteria of such projects.

Nothing contained in this policy shall prohibit any potential vendor or vendor's representative from:

1. Making public representations at scheduled pre-bid conferences or scheduled selection and negotiation committee meetings;
2. Engaging in contract negotiations during any scheduled meeting;
3. Making a public presentation to the Board during any duly noticed public meeting; or
4. Conducting business on contracts previously executed and currently in force.

The potential vendor or vendor's representative shall send all written communication directly to the designated procurement staff.

Nothing in this policy shall prohibit the procurement staff from initiating contact with a potential vendor or a vendor's representative and subsequent communication for the purpose of obtaining clarifying information regarding a response to an RFP, bid, or competitive solicitation. Such contact, including any response, shall be in writing and shall be provided to the members of the applicable procurement staff.

The potential vendor or vendor's representative determined to have violated this rule shall be subject to debarment from bidding and contracting activities of current and future projects for a period up to two calendar years (24 months).

In addition to any other penalty provided by law, violation of this policy by a District employee shall subject the employee to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

Board members who have violated the restricted contact period and/or received campaign contributions, gifts, donations, or any other items of value from such vendor representatives during the cone of silence shall abstain from voting on such matters related to that vendor for a period up to two calendar years (24 months).
