Making an Apology

1. Look at the person.
2. Use a serious, sincere voice tone, but don't pout.
3. Begin by saying, "I wanted to apologize for . . ." or "I'm sorry for . . ."
4. Do not make excuses or try to rationalize your behavior.
5. Sincerely say that you will try not to repeat the same behavior in the future.
6. Offer to compensate or pay restitution.
7. Thank the other person for listening.

Random Acts of Kindness - Thank Someone Every Week Write Thank you notes each year, one every week to a different person.
