

What are your Career plans?

Principles of Human Services is a course that will enable students to investigate careers in the Human Services Career Clusters; including counseling and mental health, early childhood development, family and community, personal care, and consumer services.

DEVELOP YOUR OWN PERSONAL BRAND

We will identify and develop employable skills; including decision-making, problem-solving, conflict-resolution and time management.

Principles of Human Services