WHAT IS A SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT?

A School-Parent Compact for is an agreement between parents, students, and teachers. It explains how the school community can work together to make sure all students reach grade level standards and show academic growth.

Franklin High School's parents, teachers and administration developed this School-Parent Compact. Meetings are held every year to review the compact and make changes based on student needs.

Franklin will have school-parent partnerships that help students succeed in school.

TWO-WAY COMMUNICATION

We believe in the importance of two-way communication between school and parents. We will provide parent communication in a language that parents can understand. We provide a parent teacher conferences in the fall semester and the spring semester.

STUDENT GRADES

Report cards are available every nine weeks. Two progress report cards are available every nine weeks.
