Announcements for the week of 2/11/19 – 2/15/19
GOOD MORNING FRANKLIN! HERE ARE TODAY’S ANNOUNCEMENTS

Got a crush this valentine’s day? Do you have a good friend and want to get them something cute? Then send a “crush” soda can to them for only 1 dollar. Come by East 260 by February 13th to order one, please know their 2nd period class. If you wanna hide your identity then you can for 2 more dollars. Make sure you get one today!

Do you play an instrument? Do you have a band? Can you tell jokes? Can you impress a crowd? Preform YOUR talent at our annual “Cougars Got Talent” Show! Sign up in East-260, talk to Sophie Chacon or DM the @franklinstuco Instagram by February 14th!

Got an old pair of sneakers or running shoes you want to get rid of? Make sure you bring them to the Franklin vs Coronado game tomorrow. Coronado will be competing against us to see who brings in the most shoes, so come to the game, bring an old pair of shoes, and cheer on

Hey Cougars! Help Junior Leadership raise socks for the opportunity center. Bring in new socks, preferably children sizes and receive community service hours in exchange. To find out more come by West-201, this is also the drop off site for the socks. Thank You!

Back by popular demand, PTSA & StuCo are opening the parking lot spaces back up for purchase for a short period! So teachers, students, staff pick up a form in East-260 or in either attendance office. Money goes to Bob, deadline is on February 21st by 2 pm - NO EXCEPTIONS.

Show some love for your teachers this Valentine’s Day and buy them a heart from any sophomore class officer or come by the Go Center. The hearts are 50 cents each and the teacher who has the most hearts by Valentine’s Day will receive a special gift! So listen up FHS teachers, encourage your students to show you some love and buy hearts today!
