

Online TSI Boot Camp

Your future starts with college readiness

Who:

Students who have not met college-ready standards or are wishing to take dual credit courses in the upcoming years.

Why:

The goal is for all EPISD students to graduate college-ready and have the opportunity to begin college without needing remedial classes.

What:

Students will be given the opportunity to TSI test online after working on a self-paced and personalized TSI prep course online.

When:

Online TSI testing will be conducted by campus teacher or counselor in both the morning and afternoon throughout summer school

Where:

All high schools will be offering online TSI boot camps and testing.

How:

Interested students email your high school counselor to register for the online TSI boot camp.
