

Sign up for Literacy Tutoring!

The GiGi's Playhouse Literacy Program uses a methodology with documented success based on the research of professionals in the field. Trained tutors work at the level of the child, continually challenging and encouraging them utilizing custom flashcards and books as well as computer resources and games. This literacy education includes not only direct instruction with the child, but educating their parents, school teachers, and other therapists as well.

Benefits

- Increased self-esteem
- Increased confidence
- Fine motor development
- Dispelled stereotypes and misconceptions
- Greater inclusion in general education classrooms
- More active role in schools and community
- Broader communication and speech abilities
- Greater social interaction and friendships
- Articulation development

For More Information call 915-779-PLAY