Ceremony to mark start of EPISD Bond athletic upgrades

EL PASO, TEXAS — The El Paso Independent School District's commitment to 21st Century Learning is driven by a vision to provide students with future-ready facilities. The District's Bond 2016 program aims to modernize the learning experience in hopes of preparing students for life after high school.

As part of the unprecedented investment approved by the voters, EPISD will kick off the first round of district-wide improvements to athletic facilities happening this summer with a groundbreaking ceremony meant to celebrate work at every traditional high school in the District.

- WHO: El Paso ISD
- WHAT: Groundbreaking Ceremony
- WHERE: Burges High School Stadium in the south end zone near corner of W.H. Burges Drive and Oakdale Street.
- WHEN: 9 a.m. on Friday, May 26.
